

2003 Trainer of the Year – Linda Thurber!

Linda Thurber, ESDII was recently presented with an Exceptional Service Award as the 2003 Trainer of the Year for the Lincoln 911 Center. Presenting her award (from left to right) are Don Herz, Finance Director, Linda, and Julie Righter, 911 Communications Coordinator.

"As an experienced ESDII with 20+ years of dispatching, Linda puts forth excellent effort in training new dispatchers. Linda is very supportive of the training program and is always willing to provide assistance to any new dispatcher. Linda approaches training with a great desire to teach and often comes up with new and innovative ways to encourage the trainee and advance their skills. Linda trains for success and is an asset to the training program." -- Julie Righter

Linda received congratulations from coworkers and management and a surprise visit from husband Dave (above). Linda also received a cake, flowers and a plaque for her outstanding contribution to the Lincoln 911 Center.

Trainer of the Year Certificate